Pinot Noir Mt. Eden Clone

El Jabalí Vineyard ~ Sta. Rita Hills

... Sinuous and serpentine, like some ephemeral belly-dancer, appearing and then disappearing through mysterious smoke... We were lucky enough to go to Donovan's recent gig at the Maverick Saloon... The show was absolutely terrific and he was very very groovy. This wine evokes similar feelings: kind of retro-mantic, sunshine, flowers, incense, a hurdy-gurdy Zen poetic Atlantis vibe... would be devastatingly good with wild Scottish salmon (done like that recipe with the leeks and mushrooms; or cedar-planked)... OR, break the gate and do some Cajun-style fried fish with a mondo tarter sauce and a pile of grits and greens... .. dancing, hair flying, arms out-flung, swirling dervishly...
