

Paste

Eight Exciting Rosés You Should Be Pairing With 'Barbie'

By Kathleen Willcox | July 24, 2023

A Playful Rosé for a Perfect Escape

Rosé consumption spikes during the summer for a reason—having a glass feels like a mini-vacation in and of itself.

“The 2022 Alma Rosa Vin Gris of Pinot Noir mimics the enchanting charm and irresistible allure of the Barbie movie,” says Samra Morris, Alma Rosa’s winemaker. “Similar to Barbie’s captivating journey, this pretty pink wine transports wine enthusiasts to a realm where the taste of the place and the uniqueness of the vintage come together, creating an unforgettable sensory experience. Reflecting on my childhood spent during a time of war, playing with my Barbie doll offered me a much-needed escape. Looking back, I could not have imagined that I would grow up to be a winemaker in California. Just like Barbie, children should believe in themselves, overcome obstacles, embrace their individuality and pursue their passions.”